MIDDIES MAKE FINE SHOWING.

Scholastic Work at Naval Academy Surpasses That for Several Years.

Special to The Washington Herald.
Annapolis, Md., June 19.—That the scholastic work of the midshipmen at the Naval Academy during the last year has been of a much higher standard than for several years past, is amply evidenced by the report made by the academy board after the annual examinations held the latter part of May, and which has just been approved by the Navy Department.

It was announced at the Academy this morning that none of the midshipmen were found so badly deficient in studies as to compel them to resign from the Academy. As a matter of fact, there were only two cases in which midshipmen were below the standard to the extent of demanding action by the board.

INNOCENT SMUGGLER IS FINED

Captain of Transport Punished for Technical Offense.

Special to The Washington Herald.

Newport News, Va., June 19.—For a violation of the customs law in bringing goods, on which duty had not been paid, into this country, Capt. Morrow, of the United States transport Kilpatrick, running between this port and Havana, has been sentenced to pay to the Treasury Department a fine of $200, or an amount three times as great as the value of the smuggled goods. Capt. Morrow, while technically guilty of smuggling, is not believed to have had knowledge of the fact that smuggled goods were on his vessel.

On the trip of the transport previous to its last one, when inspection was made at this port by the collector, one box labeled "Used Household Goods" was broken open. Instead of household goods which had been used and would not have been subject to a duty, were found various articles, dress goods, silks, lace, linens, towels, etc., from which the price tags had not been removed. These articles had been purchased in the stores of London, Paris, and other foreign cities.

All of the goods were confiscated by Collector Stuart and an investigation made. The investigation disclosed that the goods had been shipped by Maj. Slocum, U. S. A., from Havana, and billed by him as used household goods, and on this representative, Capt. Morrow had passed them on his vessel. A report of the finding of the smuggled goods and the circumstances surrounding them was made to the government, and Maj. Slocum acknowledged a part of the goods were dutiable.

IN DREAD OF LOSING HIS MIND

Secretary and Treasurer of Savings Institution Declares Preference of Death to Mental Alienation—Recently Returned from Trip to Europe to Improve Health.

Special to The Washington Herald.

Westminster, Md., June 19.—Thomas Edward Reese, secretary and treasurer of the Westminster Savings Bank, shot himself this morning and died at about 11:30 o'clock.

The act was committed in the directors' room of the bank about 7:30 o'clock, and the weapon used was a 3-caliber revolver belonging to the bank.

Mr. Reese had been connected with the bank for seventeen or eighteen years, having entered it as clerk soon after his graduation from Western Maryland College, in 1888. He became secretary and treasurer some years ago upon the death of William H. Starr. He was in his forty-first year, was married and had one child.

The cause of his act was evidently ill-health. He had been suffering from neurasthenia for a long time and recently took a trip to England, returning last week somewhat benefited. He feared mental alienation and said he would rather die than lose his mind.

FREDERICK'S FINANCES GOOD.

Annual Report Prepared by City Register Shepherd.

Special to The Washington Herald.

Frederick, Md., June 19.—The annual report of the financial condition of Frederick has been prepared by City Register Shepherd. The report shows the source of all revenue and the total expenditure of the city government. The receipts for the year were $55,623.45, and the expenditures were $51,647.65. The taxable basis of Frederick is about $4,650,000, and the rate of taxation is $1.10 on the $100.

The law provides that 10 per cent of the taxes must be maintained as a sinking fund for the city. Heretofore this fund has been absorbed by the expenses of the city, but since the incumbency of Mr. Shepherd it has been held intact, and has amounted during the past three years to more than $15,000.

Frederick City has a floating indebtedness of $73,500 and a bonded debt not secured by bonds of $22,250, making a total debt of $95,750.

The passing of a boat so stirred up the water that the body came to the surface.

From papers found on the body, the man is believed to have been Thomas Brown, a pensioner, who had served on the U. S. S. Bancroft. A coroner's jury drowned.

GROOM FAILS TO APPEAR.

Telephones to Bride and Guests He Has Changed His Mind.

Special to The Washington Herald.
Richmond, Va., June 19.—Miss Copeland H. Rowlett, a pretty young woman, of South Pine street, an expectant bride, was dressed in her wedding gown, the guests were assembled, the minister was present, and everything was in readiness for the tying of the nuptial knot, but the bridegroom, William H. Dyer, telephoned at the eleventh hour that he had decided not to get married, and suggested that the waiting party disperse. The marriage was to have taken place yesterday at noon.

The groom-to-be had taken his suit case with his clothing to the home of the girl, but an hour or more before that set for the performance of the ceremony, he called and carried it downtown. None of the friends of the interested young people would talk about the affair this evening, preferring that either the girl or Dyer give out anything that was to be said. The mother of the girl, however, when asked if Dyer had been to her home since disappointing her daughter, said that he had not, and that he had better not.

Mrs. Rowlett said that the young man had refused to marry her daughter, and that that was all there was to it.

MUST COMPLETE ROAD WORK.

Special to The Washington Herald.

Rockville, Md., June 19.—The Board of County Commissioners for this county have notified John F. This is a sequel to a suit now pending in the Circuit Court for this county, brought by Mr. Killeen against the Montgomery Commissioners.

Mr. Killeen is a resident of Bethesda, and he was in his forty-first year, was married and had one child.

The cause of his act was evidently ill-health. He had been suffering from neurasthenia for a long time and recently took a trip to England, returning last week somewhat benefited. He feared mental alienation and said he would rather die than lose his mind.
